

Television Presenter & Vet

Michael Archinal

On The Vet Vault

ABOUT MICHAEL ARCHINAL

Dr Michael Archinal is recognised as an international expert in the human-animal bond and has spoken around the world.

He is a highly sought after spokesperson appearing regularly on national television for 12 years, 20 years on radio all around the country, writes columns in Australia's #1 pet magazine and has authored a best selling book on the human-animal bond.

Michael graduated from Sydney University in 1987 and after five years in country practice, started the Bateman's Bay Veterinary Hospital.

He is now also a Senior Small Animal Partner at Kippax Vet Hospital in Canberra.

FOR MORE INFO

www.thevetvault.com

www.facebook.com/thevetvault/

@thevetvault

LISTEN NOW

More than 60% of Australian households have pets

Having a pet reduces the amount of allergic disease in children

It's been established that pets can show emotions

Source: Animal Wisdom - Michael's book

IN THIS EPISODE

00:00 - Welcome

02:09 - How did Michael come to be the director of nine different veterinary hospitals?

11:59 - What do clients want? The latest trends

18:21 - What did Michael learn in Japan that he brought home to Australia?

26:09 - How does empathy fit in with good clinical practice?

29:39 - What Michael is doing now - media and his book.

39:22 - Societal shifts around the role of pets

43:04 - Dog Dreaming - Michael's work with remote indigenous communities in outback Australia

1:05:01 - What would Michael have done if he wasn't a vet?

MICHAEL'S PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Director of nine different animal hospitals in New South Wales and the ACT
- Former TV presenter with Channel 9
- Former talkback radio presenter with ABC Radio

MORE FROM THE VET VAULT

Search for The Vet Vault on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, or on your favourite podcast player to help unlock your veterinary potential.

